It's Autumn, It's Autumn now.
What's the weather like?
Windy, windy, whooshing leaves, that’s the Autumn weather.
Wood in the basket...
Apples on the tree...
Picking berries,
Oh! What fun!
That’s what Autumn is for me!

In the United Kingdom, some children have school at home. They learn with their brothers and sisters, or on their own. Sometimes their parents are their teachers, and sometimes they have home teachers. Would you like to learn at home?

Hello, our names are Susana and Ana. We are English teachers and this year Halloween was celebrated with great commitment from both parents and students. We are truly thankful.

The idea was to create a creature using recycled materials.

Have a look!
Classes—Serra das Minas and Rinchoa
Halloween is celebrated on the 31st of October around the world. On this day, children dress up in special costumes like witches, ghosts, or vampires and visit the houses of friends and family. They often receive fruits like apples or nuts. Sometimes people decorate their houses with a pumpkin with a candle inside called a Jack O’Lantern.
Bonfire Night

Remember, remember, the fifth of November, Gunpowder, treason and plot; I know of no reason why the Gunpowder treason should ever be forgot.
